

PROCEDURE TO TRANSFER AN ANIMAL IDENTIFICATION MARK

PART I

- Complete full names and surname on the application form unless you want to register the animal identification mark under a company or a trust etc. (in case of a company, company registration documents must be attached)
- Ensure that your identity number/company/etc. is written down correctly on the application form.
- The street address refers to the address where the animals are being kept. Please note that if the incorrect address is supplied, payment would need to be made again.
- The name of farm refers to the property where the animals are kept (can also be the name of the village)
- The Magisterial district refers to the nearest court to your animals.

PREVIOUS OWNER INFORMATION

- First name and surname or Company, trust etc. must be completed in full.
- The Identity number must be that of the owner unless the identification mark was registered under a company, trust etc. Please also indicate if the identity number has changed.

PART II: CONSENT OF OWNER TO THE TRANSFER OF THE REGISTRATION OF AN IDENTIFICATION MARK

- In cases where an owner is still alive and wishes to transfer an Identification Mark to a relative or other, an affidavit must be done by the owner, indicating that he/she wants his/her Animal Identification mark to be transferred to the said person.
- In cases where the owner is deceased, no transfer will be made without a letter of authorization issued by the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development or a letter of Appointment as an executor.
- Only the person to whom the Letter of Authority/ Appointment as an Executor was issued to may give permission to transfer the identification mark to a certain Individual/company/trust.
